2. When the hope-less find hope and His forg-ive-ness, No long-er lost but found; we are His

11
Vo. lone, own, When the burd-en of sin and the debt so trem-ent-ous, He who died is lead-ing you home.
When peace comes in flow-ing like a riv-er, He who died is lead-ing you home.

21
Vo. When you hung-er and thirst, and no-one comes to ans-w-er, When your pride is brok-en and right-eous-ness gone,
When death has come, or He comes to get us, As the ag-es roll on and nev-er a-lone,

31
Vo. When there's no-where to turn, yet you're turn-ing to Him, He who died is lead-ing you home. fHe's the Still wond-er-ing why He would love such a sinner, He who died has led us all home.

Chorus

40
Vo. One that will ne'er forg-et Calv'ry, He is seek-ing and sav-ing His own, He will fin-ish the work He has start-ed,

51
Vo. He who died is lead-ing you home.
