

When A Prodigal Got Home

Songs of Redemption

Edward Hale

Allegro

Voice mf 1. A young - er son said, "Fath - er, give un - to me, The por - tion that fall - eth to me." He di - vi - ded his
2. I'll a - rise and to my Father I'll go and I'll say, 'Fath - er, I've sinned a - gainst thee. No more worth - y to

Piano mf

12 Vo. liv - ing to them both and then, The young - er took his jour - ny to a dist - ant countr - y. There wast - ed his be called as one of they sons. Just as a serv - ant if you please just make me." He a - rose, came to his

Pno.

21 Vo. sub - stance, and when he'd spent all, A fam - ine a - rose, and he be - gan to be in need. A cit - i - zen of that countr - y he'd fath - er, but a great way off, His fath - er saw him and ran, Had comp - ass - ion and fell on his

Pno.

31 Vo. joined him - self to, Sent him his swine for to feed. He would fain have filled his bell - y, With the neck and kissed him, So glad that his son had come home. He said, "Father, I've sinned a - gainst Heav - en, No more

Pno.

41 Vo. husk that the swine did eat, but then, He came to him - self, said, "The serv - ant's back home, Have bread and a'
worth - y to be called thy son," but then, The fath - er said, "Serv - ants, bring forth the best robe, Shoes, and put

Pno.

51 Vo. plent - y to spare, While here I am starv - ing with hung - er and want, And here there is no man to care.
them on his feet, Put a ring on his fing - er, bring thith - er the calf, Kill it, and then let us eat."

Pno.